

CHCI Africa Workshop - Addis 2019

Africa as Concept and Method: Emancipation, Decolonization, Freedom January 3-18, 2019 Addis Ababa

The first CHCI Africa Workshop, Addis 2019, will be held at Addis Ababa University (Ethiopia). Hosted by the Consortium of Humanities Institutes and Centers (CHCI) in collaboration with the College of Performing and Visual Art and the Center of African Studies at Addis Ababa University, the workshop will include intensive seminars, mentoring and training workshops, and guest lectures. We invite humanities graduate students studying in African universities and those who have received their PhDs since 2010 and are based in Africa, to apply to participate.

More information available at: <http://chcinetwork.org/addis-2019-cfp>

Please submit this form by email to Guillaume Ratel, CHCI Director of Programs (ratel@wisc.edu) by June 1, 2018.

First name:

Last Name:

Email:

University:

Field of Study:

Year(s) in doctoral program:

(e.g. 1st year, 2nd year. Enter "postdoctoral" if you graduated recently)

Title of research project:

Please also attach the following three documents to your email:

- A 1-page description of your research project
- A letter of support from your advisor if you are at the thesis/dissertation stage
- Your Curriculum Vitae